

Brittany Miller - 2019

BRITTNEY DAYNE MILLER

Born on February 28, 1988 and raised in Green Sea, SC, Brittney was introduced to the shag by her parents at the age of 10. Growing up only 30 miles from Ocean Drive, Brittney started shag lessons at Fat Harold's in 1998 then attended her first Jr. SOS the following summer in 1999. She started competing in small contests around the Carolinas as a Jr. I in 1999-2000 and competed in her first Nationals and Grand Nationals in 2001 as a Jr. II at the age of 13 and placed 2nd. Brittney continued to compete throughout her Junior years and won numerous Jr. II contests. She danced on the National Shag Dance Team as a junior in 2005-2006 and through this traveled to New York and California to compete with the team. In her high school years Brittney taught free weekly lessons at H's and into her college years was a recipient of the Shad Alberty scholarship. In 2010 Brittney graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Coastal Carolina University and in 2015 she earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Her first job as a Registered Nurse was at Duke University Hospital and she currently resides back home in N. Myrtle Beach and works in ICU at Grand Strand Medical Center. Brittney has won contest in the Non-Pro division and continues to spread her love of the dance to others and show her support attending current shag events.
