

Krystal Bravo Fisher - 2021

KRYSTAL BRAVO FISHER

Born of October 31, 1991, Krystal grew up in New York where she started dancing at the age of 4 in tap, ballet and jazz. Later she moved to Charlotte where she was exposed to Carolina shag in 2005. Her love of shag and beach music was inspired by Jason and Holly Cagle who not only taught her the basic but also the culture of the dance. She first danced at the National Shag Dance Championship in 2008 with her partner Casey Cooper and together joined the Junior Shag Dance Team. The following year she joined the National Shag Dance Team where she continued to grow in the dance. Dancing on both teams, she was able to showcase the shag all along the East Coast, California and Australia. With the assistance of the Beth Mitchell Scholarship and the Dewey Kennedy Scholarship, she graduated from East Carolina University with a BFA in Dance Education. In 2014, she became a National Non-Pro Shag Dance Champion with partner Cody Edwards. She has assisted and taught many classes and workshops at Junior SOS in efforts to help impact and inspire future shag dancers as many did for her. Krystal continues to love the dance and the shag community. She plans to contribute to the future of shag and help keep it alive for years to come
